(B.Hull/Brenda Russell)

Love we all hope to find
It'll come so easy or can take its time
But I've never given up along the way

One day you're gonna raise your blinds
And every little dew drop is a treasured find, oh my
When you say the things you have to say
Wake up and the day is dawning
It's another chance to change your mind
Reaching for the stars around you
I found you

Let somebody know what you really love
Show somebody just what you're made of
Always in a rush, don't you see the sign?
You can always take the time
(Let somebody know)

Just when you think you got it done
In just a moment it can turn around, oh my
When you're wishing for yesterday
Wake up and the day is dawning
It's another chance to change your mind
Reaching for the stars around you
I found you

Let somebody know what you really love
Show somebody just what you're made of
Always in a rush, don't you see the sign?
You can always take the time

To let somebody know that you really care
Let somebody see what you have to share
Oh yeah
It's a simple thing
To let somebody know

Always in a rush, don't you see the sign?
You can always take the time

Let somebody feel the tears that you cry
Let them know the love is still alive, oh alive
It's a simple thing

To let somebody know (somebody)
Let somebody know (somebody)
Let somebody know, oh yeah (somebody)
Somebody baby

Let somebody know, oh yeah (somebody)
You gotta let somebody know (somebody), somebody
Let somebody know (somebody)
