Oh and I know these things will keep me loving you
dear

Say it again

These things will keep me loving you dear

A gentle touch upon my face baby

A tender kiss and a warm embrace honey

Oh a few kind words

Spoken so sincere

And I know and I know

These things will keep me loving you dear

These things will keep me loving you dear

Give me your shoulder so I can cry on it baby

Oh give me advice that I can rely on honey

Oh say you love me every day of the year

And I know and I know

These things will keep me loving you dear

Say it again

These things will keep me loving you dear

Oh and I know these things will keep me loving you
dear

Oh baby baby

Call me each night on the telephone baby

Oh send me a card when you're far from home honey

Oh hold me close to you baby every time you're near

And I know and I know

These things will keep me loving you dear

Oh, loving you dear
