

The Gaslight Anthem "Wooderson"

Visit "Wooderson" on MotoLyrics.com

And tonight the coast line is quiet, it's quieter than it's ever been.

Honey this town is a prison, with it's four walls closing in

And they got one pill to make you smaller, they one pill to make you scream.

Darling this heart is on fire, and this life is but a dream

Alright, alright.

You see this town pulls my heart strings, I fell in love with the Shrewsbury stars

But you see there's far too many diamonds, in the back seats of Bouregards.

And I could never stop this burning honey I can't settle dust,

I could never stand my way through dark and this heart is on fire

Alright alright.

Tonight tonight

We're gonna ride like silver on a desolation moonlight

Tonight tonight

Ain't coming back until the morning light,

Tonight tonight

It's alright alright

Tonight tonight. Alright alright.

Dancing my moonlight, my old friend the twilight

Visit The Gaslight Anthem page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.