I feel like I am hurt Can't you see
I try to express
But I act like you're a stranger to me I want to share, but don't know how My eyes can't speak
And my mouth won't write it down And there's so much confusion as I want to clear it up Cause when I start, suddenly, the end has begun Maybe if I touch, you will feel what I mean but you're acting strange Cause my eyes look differently Caught by death, I do not hope that my release is decided long ago I try to get out
To jump at once in a place Where it's all right or wrong and I won't be afraid I open myself for you and all those others
