I got a catacomb of secrets that would break your heart
I got a grave to dig with your name on it
While you watch

I've given up on the sunshine can't avoid the rain
When I did become this monster that lives for this pain?

When sleeping pills can't offer what you want
I'm living underwater but I can not drown

I can not swim to save myself I'm drifting off
I'm sleeping underground now
Forever in hell

I'm not alone here in the darkness I'm buried in thoughts
In a dream it was silent when my world fell apart
When the angels come to dying
They'll come to get lost
I'll be staring into your eyes while you watch them fall

When sleeping pills can't offer what you want
I'm living underwater but I can not drown

I can not swim to save myself I'm drifting off
I'm sleeping underground now for ever in hell
And I'm breathing in the water I can not drown
When did I become this monster
Forever in hell
What have I become x2

I'm living underwater but I can not drown
Living underwater

I cannot swim to save myself I'm drifting off
I'm sleeping underground now for ever in hell
And I'm breathing in the water
But I can not drown
When did I become this monster forever in hell
