Already gone; again.
I can feel it caving in.

Everything built, was built to fall.
Thanks to you, my heart was torn apart.

I can feel it come undone through the night.
Why can't you see, you're killing me.
(Our love is lost).

The feeling that I get when I'm laying next to you and
everything comes undone.
It's the only thing that keeps me coming back to you,
when everything comes undone.

A bed of nails and shards of glass, pierce the skin, 'til I collapse.

I can feel it come undone through the night.
(I, feel, free).

It comes undone again.
I can feel it.
Everything comes undone.
