From this distance clarity is a laughable ideal
Words shouted aloud, no audible appeal
The machines keep rolling, the show must go on
The kings strategically sacrifice their pawns

Don't wanna play that game, oh no
I don't wanna waste away
Don't wanna join the ranks of the dead
I'm barely breathing on the edge, I enjoy the view

From safety, fingers pointed amount to nil
If the guns don't get you, your silence will Must I always shirk? Give me some constructive work
Or some meaningful responsibility

Don't wanna play that game, oh no
I don't wanna waste away
Don't wanna join the ranks of the dead
I'm barely breathing on the edge, I enjoy the view

Don't wanna play that game, oh no
I don't wanna waste away
Don't wanna join the ranks of the dead
I'm barely breathing on the edge, I enjoy the view
