Don't you think you oughta rest

Don't you think you oughta lay your head down

Don't you think you want to sleep

Don't you think you oughta lay your head down.....tonight

Don't you think you've done enough

Oh, don't you think you've got enough, well maybeâ€¦

You don't think there's time to stop

There's time enough for you to lay your head down,
tonight,

Tonight

Let it wash away

All those yesterdays

What are you running from??

Taking pills to get along

Creating walls to call your own

So no one catches you drifting off and

Doing all the things that.....we all do

Let them wash away

All those yesterdays (echo)

All those paper plates

All those yesterdays

All those yesterdays

You've got time, you've got time to escape

There's still time, it's no crime to escape

It's no crime to escape, it's no crime to escape

There's still time, so escape....

It's no crime, crimeâ€¦!

All those yesterdays...
