The Rolling Stones) (London, England, 7/14/93)

I will be the least of your burdens

My back is broken, my feet are hurtin'

All I want is to drink, please fuckin' leave me alone

I'll never be your beast of learning

I'm a stupid fuck, I don't know nothin' at all

All I want is to drink, maybe with just one other person

Am I hard enough...am I tough enough...

I don't give a fuck

I just wanna live life and be dumb and happy like an American

All I want is for you to make love to me

Hey hey oh...hey oh oh...

Ooh...ooh...

No time like the present to get ripped apart

Got this burnin' desire coming straight from my heart

Suck you dry...suck...suck you dry...suck you dry...

Suck me dry...suck this dry
