On the last time you've got your new parachutes, or a new bike or new clothes or something. Sometimes you got something new you just, you can't wait to... to use it.

So we're ... are gonna try a couple... At least one new song.

Yeh, we can't wait to try it out, so. Another for you."

There's a light, when my baby's in my arms

There's a light, when the window shades are drawn

Hesitate when I feel I may do harm to her

Wash it off cause this feeling we can share

And I know she's reached my heart in thin air.

Byzantine is reflected in our pond

There's a cloud, but the water remains calm

Reaching in the sun's fingers clutch the dawn to pass

Even out, it's a precious thing to bear

And I know she's reached my heart in thin air

Yes, I know she's reached my heart in thin air

It's not in my past to presume

Love can keep on moving in both directions

How to be happy and true

Is the quest we're taking on together

Take it on, on, on, on, on

Take it on, on, on, on, on...

There's a light when my baby's in my arms

And I know she's reached my heart in thin air

And I know she's reached my heart in thin air

And I know she's reached my heart in thin air

Yes, I know she's reached my heart
