Dark grey skies moving in
Ominous sign blowing in the wind
It's coming right around the bend
Knew it was
But I wasn't sure when
It's creeping right up the steps
It's at the door and it's come to collect
From all the wrong doers
The sermon cries
It's going to be hell on highwater tonight

When it rocks heads will roll
For all the sinners who sold their souls
When it rains it pours
For all the takers who took a little more

Get moving it's time to go
Parade rolling down redemption road
All the sinners will march to the drums
Damnation, leading in the burning sun
The day of reckoning has just begun

No mercy, no grace
Not for liars who will kneel at the gates
Only darkness will now loom
For all the dogs who are licking their wounds
No entrance, you heard prayers
Masses of souls who will not be spared
Cheaters and thieves come forth
In first days of light you were fore warned

When it rocks heads will roll
For all the sinners who sold their souls
When it rains it pours
For all the takers who took a little more
