Lock the doors
I'm sensing danger
Every day thing gets a little bit stranger
So now I hide in fear
For my own dear life

Get ready now I'm jumping shit
Cause hell if I'm going down with it
They said the end was coming
But they couldn't nail down the time

Hit the kill switch
This is it
Human kind can't co exist
There's no turning back now
There's no turning back

Somebody sound off the alarms
We can't turn off what they've turned on
We can't come back were too far gone

Rising oceans
Conflicts in motion
Some turn their heads and don't take notice
The fire drill it's ringing
Canary in the cold mine finally stopped singing It's getting hotter and it's harder to breathe
It's scaring the living daylight out of me
Here we are spinning out of control
C'mon now and grab a hold

Hit the kill switch
This is it
Human kind can't co exist
There's no turning back now
there's no turning back

Somebody sound off the alarms
The warning signs they're always on
You can't come back when your too far gone

Somebody sound off the alarms
The strife of man it carries on Wake the dead now
Cause we don't have long
