THE LOVE I NEED

When I look into your eyes,
I see the love I need,
Deep within your soul,
I know there's room for me,
But I will wait here patiently,
For you to come to my relief,
I hold out my hand towards you,
For when you trust in my belief.

When can I hold you,
I need you here with me.
When will I know you,
When will you come to me,
When will be together,
And do you even want to be,
When can I say I love you,
And have you say it back to me.
