Do you feel the same?
Now that the quiet is nearing
Touchdown eternal grace
If ever you are needed now

In pain you see mistakes
Every beating heart will recover
In time your boundaries break
If ever, I'll be here with you

An empty room where the voices fade
You take it in as it takes you away
A memory like a serenade
I swear I hear the angels say
I'll be here with you
I'll be here with you

Lights and sounds
Moving all around
In your heart, in your heart
There's only love

If you could be here now
I'd give you all that you ask for
Inside a light's gone out
Forever in a quiet place

A memory like a serenade
I swear I hear the angels say
I'll be here with you
I'll be here with you

A memory like a serenade
You take it in as it takes you away
In my hands your heart it lays
I swear I hear the angels say
I'll be here with you
