It's been proven, hundreds over since
Decision was the best that we could make
It all wasn't clear enough before

That's not what I said, that's not what I said
And I bent over backwards just to speak
And if you've got things straight in your head
Then you've got bigger problems than me

I'll send you straight to your room until you calm down
Until you've thought through what you wanna say

This isn't me as much as it may seem
And you're still thinkin' and you're still

That's not what I said, that's not what I said
And I bend over backwards just to speak
And if you won't let sleepin' dogs die
Then I'm givin' up on this one
