I'll fawn over photographs that you never would get to see Swallow your own neglect with your miserable company

Your daughter forgot her memories Your daughter forgot her, remember this

I'm over the precedent of a false security No matter how I come back you can never be proud of me

It's too long to stay gone
It's too long to stay gone

I don't regret what words were said, deserved respect, you never had
Watching the world keep falling around you I don't expect your hand in this under duress and influence
Watching the world keep falling around you

I'll fawn over photographs that you never would get to see
No matter how I come back you can never be proud of
me

It's too long to stay gone
It's too long to stay gone

I don't regret what words were said, deserved respect,
you never had
Watching the world keep falling around you
I don't expect your hand in this under duress and
influence
Watching the world keep falling around you (Around you, around you)
I don't regret what words were said, deserved respect
you never had
Watching the world keep falling around you
