Little girl smiled at me today and my heart took a ride
Ain't no way to slow it down, ain't no place to hide I'll wake up tomorrow and I'll know how far I fell Right now it's a little too soon to tell

I don't even know her name, I know she don't know me
I'm tryin' to convince myself she'd like my company
'Cause she might be the angel come to break this lonely spell
Right now it's a little too soon to tell

It's a little too soon to call her mine
A little bit early for makin' time
I'm throwin' my quarters in the wishing well
But it's a little too soon to tell

I swore I'd had enough of love after what it put me through
One more promise I could not keep when I laid eyes on you
And now my imagination's got me hearin' wedding bells
I know it's a little too soon to tell

I don't even know her name, I know she don't know me
I'm tryin' to convince myself she'd like my company
'Cause she might be the angel come to break this
lonely spell
