Verse:

I see your eyes
Look into the sky
Hoping to fly away
Out of the night
Away from the fire
Into a holy place

Chorus:

There's something, something so wonderful
Wonderful in being alone
Away from the others, my demons and the clutter
From, words,-- that can break bone
From, words that broke my bones
From, words that broke your bones

Verse 2:

Oh where are you passion
Where are you heart
I didn't really mean to let you go

They told me this,
Told me that
I'm better of, with just the facts
No hope of,--- dreams for a home

Chorus 2:

There's something, something so wonderful
Wonderful in being with you
Away from the others, my demons and the clutter
Of words that can break bone

From words that broke my bones
From words that broke your bones
