

The Getaway Plan "Strings"

Visit "Strings" on MotoLyrics.com

Draw these strings tight
Keep yourself inside
Don't just lie there
Part your lips and smile

So you're dimming the lights again
Glowing inside again
Words exploding
Just like Poem's
Carve them in stone
So our love can't be torn apart

Past this black
There lies perfection's eye's
This perfection is rightfully mine

So you're dimming the lights again
Glowing inside again
Words exploding
Just like Poem's
Carve them in stone
So our love can't be torn apart

you're dimming the lights again
Glowing inside again
Words exploding
Just like Poem's
Carve them in stone
So our love can't be torn apart

Carve them in stone
So our love can't be torn apart

And I will wait... for nothing... for you
And I will wait... for nothing... for you
And I will wait... for nothing... for you
