she met him 1980 in a school disco he kissed her for the first time on the last bus home he said "you be DEBBIE HARRY, i'll be JOEY RAMONE" she saw shooting stars flash by the moon exploded in the sky her heart flipped when they kissed star dust on her lips special vat in the dark getting pissed in the park she's in love, she's in love and when they walked down town all the people would stare they used to laugh at her clothes and the colour of her hair

she was 17 and she didn't care cos baby's gonna take her everywhere

cos he said they'd live in new york and the stars would be their own she was DEBBIE HARRY he was JOEY RAMONE

yeah he said they'd live in new york
cos she was DEBBIE HARRY he was JOEY, he was JOEY RAMONE when she met him she was standing in a blue white light he said "d'ya like the SEX PISTOLS, have you got a light?"

and all the stars were shining on a perfect saturday night
holding him tight

kissing him in the dark in the back of daddys car have a drink have a laugh do you want my autograph no school summers out make me wanna twist and shout down on the beaches looking at the peaches when they walked down town all the people would stare

hair
she was 17 and she didn't care
cos baby's gonna take her everywhere

and he was JOEY RAMONE

cos she was DEBBIE HARRY and he was JOEY, he was JOEY RAMONE

and he was JOEY RAMONE

cos she was DEBBIE HARRY
