In my dreams I see you there in my heart
I'd really like to know for sure
With my friends who know me only too well
Spending time together every day

I wonder if we'll ever learn
The answer why the world turns
But I really couldn't ask for more
That's for sure, that's for sure

It's where heaven meets the world (Meets the world)
Put your hands up in the air
Meet the world and say hello (Hello, hello, hello)
It's where heaven meets the world (Meets the world)
Put your hands up in the air
Meet the world and say hello (Hello, hello, hello)

Makes me smile, the funny things that we do
There's one thing I really know for sure
With our friends, we have so much we can share
Make the most of each and every day

I wonder if we'll ever learn
The answer why the world turns
But I really couldn't ask for more
That's for sure, that's for sure

It's where heaven meets the world (Meets the world)
Put your hands up in the air
Meet the world and say hello (Hello, hello, hello)
It's where heaven meets the world (Meets the world)
Put your hands up in the air
Meet the world and say hello (Hello, hello, hello)

Hello, hello, hello

Hello, hello hello,
It's where heaven meets the world, meets the world

Heaven, yeah
Heaven meets the world, heaven

Put your hands up in the air
Meet the world and say hello, yeah, hello, hello, hello

It's where heaven meets the world (Meets the world)
Put your hands up in the air
Meet the world and say hello (Hello, hello, hello)
It's where heaven meets the world (meets the world)
Put your hands up in the air
Meet the world and say hello (Hello, hello, hello)

It's where heaven meets the world (Meets the world)
Put your hands up in the air
Meet the world and say hello
Hello, hello, hello
