How can I hope that you'll love me
When you don't even know my name
When I see you at school, I become such a fool
I don't know how to play this game

How can I hope that you'll notice
When you won't even look my way
If our eyes ever meet, you look down at your feet
And pretend that there's nothing to say

Don't you know
Baby I love you so
Can't you see
What you mean to me

How can my heart ever tell you
That the love that I have is real
If I wasn't so shy when I see you walk by
Then I'd tell you just how I feel

Don't you know
Baby I love you so
I know you'll understand
If you'd only take my hand

How can my heart ever tell you
That the love that I have is real
If I wasn't so shy when I see you walk by
Then I'd tell you just how I feel
If I wasn't so shy when I see you walk by
Then I'd tell you just how I feel
