You won't find me feeling sad tonight
I'll wear a smile through the darkening night
And I hope everything's going right for you
The winter rain falling from the sky
The drifting wind in the firelight
I fall asleep with the moonlight gliding through

And I feel so alive
There's nothing I can't do
And I feel so alive
In the morning when the day is new
Don't stop my heart from spinning around
Don't stop my heart from turning me upside down

When I awake, look around my room
The sun shines through til the afternoon
There's so many things that we can do today
Now we've had fun, all the games we've played
This time has been like a holiday
And I can't wait to do it all again

And I feel so alive
There's nothing I can't do
And I feel so alive
In the morning when the day is new
Don't stop my heart from spinning around
Don't stop my heart from turning me upside down

Even if you keep it a secret you'll want to hide away
I never knew that life could be so wonderful

You won't find me feeling sad tonight
I'll wear a smile through the darkening night
And I hope everything's going right for you

And I feel so alive
There's nothing I can't do
And I feel so alive
In the morning when the day is new
I feel so alive
There's nothing I can't do

And I feel so alive
In the morning when the day is new
Don't stop my heart from spinning around
Dont' stop my heart from spinning around
Dont' stop my heart from turning me upside down
