Don't you ever feel your dreams cannot be real
There are so many prizes for the taking
Your rose-colored glasses, that's just your heart talking
There's so much we can learn from the heart talking

Keep smiling through
Don't let them tell you, you can't do what you wanna do

Keep on shining like you do
A million buttercups in bloom
Keep on shining like you do
Don't take your eyes from the prize
Keep on shining like you do
Raindrops falling down like jewels
Keep on shining like you do
You are the sunlight bursting through

Don't you ever feel you've done all that you can
There's always another corner you can turn
See those rays of sunlight
That's just your heart reminding you
How far you've come

Keep smiling through
Don't let them tell you, you can't do what you wanna do

Keep on shining like you do
A million buttercups in bloom
Keep on shining like you do
Don't take your eyes from the prize
Keep on shining like you do
Raindrops falling down like jewels
Keep on shining like you do
You are the sunight bursting through

You floated down from the golden trees you say
You wanna be lifted up and carried forward to summer
Well, she's on her way
Yeah, summer's on her way

Keep on shining like you do

A million buttercups in bloom
Keep on shining like you do
Don't take your eyes from the prize
Keep on shining like you do
Raindrops falling down like jewels
Keep on shining like you do
You are the sunlight bursting through

You are the sunlight bursting through

Keep on shining
Like you do
