There's snakes among us that I never bothered to find.
Starry eyed and tongue tied, blurting out and rambling.

"On and on and on"
Just hit repeat
"On and on and on"
One more time

There's snakes among us but who's to blame this time?
My own phoenix flight, or to ignite.
Crashed and burnt out, only to meet in the ashes.

A facade never meant to be, cuz it only makes sense to me.

Once again, I've burned and borrowed one and two,
Turned black and blue.
Poisoned before but found the cure,
And been exhausted again.

"On and on and on"
Just hit repeat
"On and on and on"
One last time

"On and on and on"
Just hit repeat
"On and on and on"
And so on...

It's in my head, on my mind.
It's in my fucking head.

Like a disease, I can't shake. Repeat
