Right now I'm stuck in the middle of a dream, of things
I've seen.

Right now I'm waiting to dance.

I'm waiting for someone to take my hand.

And to lead me on the path of my heart's desires.

And safely guide me to the end where fulfillment will be my friend.

And I do believe there will be a time when the sun will forever shine.

And I do believe All I Want will be mine.

I know it will come in time.

Yeah I know, it will come in time.

Right now I wish I was there with no regret, and without a care.

Right now it's really hard, so hard to bear cause I feel, I feel I feel so close.

I can wonder, I can roam cause I'm yet to find my home.

And I do believe there will be a time when the sun will
forever shine.

And I do believe All I Want will be mine.

I know, it will come in time.

Yeah I know, it will come in time.

This huge world I've been livin' in suddenly seems so small.

And these same roads I've been walkin' they don't welcome me anymore.

And I do believe there will be a time when the sun will
forever shine.

I do believe All I Want will be mine.

I do believe All I Want will be mine.

I do believe All I Want will be mine.

Yeah I know, it will come in time.

Yeah I know, it will come in time.
