"Holding Onto You"

We're ridin' every day now from early in the morning
To so late in the day and we're doin' fine
I'm thinking 'bout the feeling of winning that blue ribbon
Wish upon a star there in the sky
That we'll do our best and we will get it right

And I told you once upon a time, I tell you every time
I'm holding onto you
I told you once upon a time, I tell you day and night
I'm holding onto you, I say I'm holding onto you

And whatever you feel right now
We'll ride like we're champions
We're gonna figure it out
And whatever it takes, I'm holding on out Something tells me you're here with me to love me right throughout

I told you once upon a time, I tell you every time
I'm holding onto you
I told you once upon a time, I tell you day and night
I'm holding onto you, I say I'm holding onto you

Lately I've been thinking how life can be so pleasing We're riding like a movie in my head
And when I look around me, I'd probably say that I should be
In love with life and you and everyone that stands beside me

Cuz I can see a little clearer now
There's gonna be many more years
We're gonna figure it out
And whatever it takes, I'm holding on out
And something tells me you're here with me to love me

I told you once upon a time, I tell you every time
I'm holding onto you
I told you once upon a time, I tell you day and night

I'm holding onto you, I say I'm holding onto you
