Say hello not goodbye
Try to smile not to cry
Take the time that you can
To build a better life
Let the good times begin
Love this world that you're in
Share a smile
Pass it on

While there's space in your heart
There's always room for love
While there's space in your heart
There's always room for love
So keep your heart open

Say hello not goodbye
Try to smile not to cry
Take the time that you can
Look your friend in the eye
See the pain that they hide
Share a smile
Pass it on

While there's space in your heart
There's always room for love (So keep your heart open)
While there's space in your heart
There's always room for love
So keep your heart open

Your precious heart open yeah
Your precious heart open

While there's space in your heart
There's always room for love (So keep your heart open)
While there's space in your heart
There's always room for love
So keep your heart open

Your precious heart open
Ooooooh ooooooh

Your precious heart
