Artificial Love

You got a million reasons to go insane
Looking up from the bottom of the food chain
She keeps on ripping the flesh right of your fucking bones
Turns your bed into a psycho battle zone
Let it all go boom!

The message that is sent can't get much clearer
Anyone would walk away
Before it's only hell to spray
Though the ice can't get much colder
Heating like a flaming fire
Artificial love for hire

You keep on picking up what's left on the floor
Stepping up wouldn't take you through a civil war
Another shot in the dark won't help your sucking aim
Had enough of her interior design?
What's your credit line?

The message that is sent can't get much clearer
Anyone would walk away
Before it's only hell to spray
Though the ice can't get much colder
Heating like a flaming fire
Artificial love for hire

For hire, for hire, for hire Artificial love
You got to give me a brake coz there's money to make You're for hire, hire
Getting another round, but who's to pay?

You needed love but got another fucking mental rape
Together the two of you will breed a brand new hate
The more you try to get away the more you lose the same
Can't get enough of artificial love
