i heard a voice speaking to me saying you have a choice in the way thing can be
look as this world
the trouble it's in
if you want to do something here's where you begin

*send love
to the heart of the earth
send love
love can heal all the hurt
send love
it's the best you can do and the love that you send will come back to you

i thought to myself
could that be enough
can all that's so wrong
be set right by love
a gentle voice answered just do your part
and watch what can happen when you open your heart

chorus

it'll come back to you
over and over
it'll come back to
more each day
and you will discover everything you do when you say
