we went to the party spelled p-i-t-y

and everybody had a belly sick with red wine
it's a long walk home when it's so cold outside you're too sick, it's too late

i lost my insides a year ago and every now and then
i lose a little more
just keep on stuffing
my shirt with straw
and pretty soon you'll throw me
on the bonfire

it's a late night drive to the nursing home and pills fill up the holes in your bones but there's just so many they just run straight through and you can't stop everything just gushing out of you i'm sick to death of sickness and death no more Christmases by hospital beds no more holding thin hands or kissing hot foreheads

the organs are exposed in a game of operation and the buzzer always goes when you put the tweezers in

i've just put my tweezers in we went to the party spelt p-i-t-y with all the pale kids who've got tired red eyes all they seem to say is 'please god no more'

just leave it, i'm done had enough for this year
