tahi rua toru four

(sharon)

give it to me hemi

(hemi)

che bro too much (x3)

and all the chicks say, im pretty fly

(sharon)

for a Maori guy

(hemi)

hurry up aye, just put round the corner there bro, she'll be right,

just put it next to the dog ow(get cho feet off the couch),

oh tie the dog up there ow, watch out for baby, che baye,

tu tere mai nga iwi oma rapiti, i was cruising down the road in my Holden '56, when i felt like a feed bro, yea man some fish and chips, well i got all my whanau, they're stacked up in the car, i also got my sharkies on,

ohh bro there pretty dark!

so dont be late,

get cho bait,

you can always go fishing with your cousins mate, so grab a tui,

we'll see you at the hui, blasting out the sounds on the way to Wanganui, so we'll go today,

hurry up aye,

dont muck around,

and cook some eggs aunty may,

the girls can cook some lunch, but hay hay, we're going to Hawkes Bay!!!!

(chorus)

so now we're on the East Coast, yea we're cruising at the Mount, so how many in the Holden bro?, oh no i forgot to count, the cops can pull us over co'z we're bulging at the seams,
oh stink we got a ticket bro, now you know what that means,

now we have to pay, the tickets baye, grab your fullahs guitars, we're gonna have to play,
we'll play a waiata,
to the choice copper,
and he will say to you and me,
you dont have to pay,
the fine toaday,
co'z your songs really really made my day, so now he realised that,

hay hay im pretty bloody che aye!!!!

now everyone knows im pretty fly for a Maori guy!

oh too much guys, oh thanks guys too muchfullah che bro

(sharon)
well your pretty hip for a Kiwi chap
