Analyze, then relays
What you are facing
Where you are heading
I've tried, I've tried
To open wide your eyes
To make you realize
And compromise

All that I do
Doesn't come through
You have your own protections
Nothing I say or how much I pray
Seems you have your on direction

!Listen to me! Just once
!See right through me In advance
,And If I am close
? What can be worse
?Than to be ignored
!Ego's being destroyed
!Listen to me

...Clarify
You're petrified
Of saying what you feel inside
You just can't deny
Rely, rely on me sweet guy
...If only I could read your mind
...That would be so divine

All that I do
Doesn't come through
You have your own protections
Nothing I say or how much I pray
Seems you have your on direction

!You have to listen
!You have to listen
That's all I say, that's all I pray
If I'm close what can be worse
?Than to be ignored
