Hear me out now
The things I'm saying
,Are truly what I feel
Cause I had my own
Troubled times
That made it look so real

People hurt me
And tried to smash
Each one of my believes
But I'm strong again
And raise my hand
So come on follow me

Come together
We'll make it better
We should never
Ever go astray
Communication
Comprehension
And affection
Is the only way

Let's unite now
And show them how
Happiness is here
No more sorrow
No Need to borrow
Other identities

Cause I trust my'
Inner self
There's no room
For shame
So just watch me
Following my believes
And you should do the same
