When it goes dark
Get me to bed, forget the night
Wait for the light of day
Sleep till the sun comes into sight

When it goes dark
Get me to bed, forget the night
Wait for the light of day
Sleep till the sun comes into sight

I'm gonna capture the light
And keep it in my heart
Yeah, grab on to the light
And hold it in my heart

Light and luck and love
Everybody wants to touch the stars
Take a piece of happiness
Hold on tight, keep trying hard

To capture the light
And keep it in your heart
Yeah, grab on to the light
And hold it in your heart

Used to hunt for darkness
And it would follow me wherever I go
Now I'm looking up again
I've got no more time for feeling low

'Cause I captured the light
I've got it in my heart
Grabbing on to the light
And hold it in my heart
Capture the light, hey

Used to hunt for darkness
And it would follow me wherever I go
Now I'm looking up again
I've got no more time for feeling low

'Cause I captured the light

I've got it in my heart
Grabbing on to the light
And hold it in my heart

'Cause I captured the light
I've got it in my heart
Grabbing on to the light
And hold it in my heart
