Do you know, do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?

You and I are nothing more than mites
Together we can serve the skies as kites
But tonight, it's blood in the blood out
Through the bites

You and I should stay out of the light
Together we can serve the skies as kites
But tonight, it's blood in the blood out
Through the bites

Do you know, do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?

So take my hand, tonight
And hold it tight
The night is here
Into stray, tonight
But we will find our way

You and I could not be more alive
Together we could serve the skies as kites
But tonight, it's blood in the blood out
Through the bites

Do you know, do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?

So take my hand, tonight
And hold it tight
The night is here
Into stray, tonight
But we will find our way

Do you know, do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
Do you know, do you know the way home?
