I sacrificed my heart and soul
So please don't disappoint me
I'm prepared to take the fall
Please don't disappoint me
Don't disappoint me

I see fire in your eyes
Burning down my hope I built inside
And when my hope and self-esteem is gone
My lack of friends really brings me down

I sacrificed my heart and soul
So please don't disappoint me
I'm prepared to take the fall
Please don't disappoint me
Don't disappoint me

Point you finger pick on me
Cause I was made to believe
I was made to believe
Every seed I plant they burn
And their twisted truth I heard
I was made to believe

Don't disappoint me
Cause I was made to believe

My lack of friends really brings me down
My lack of good friends really brings me down
