Chorus:

I'm already gone, you're out of time
I'm already gone, you're out of time
I got the people looking for me I got the po-po looking for me you're out of time, I'm already gone
you're out of time, I'm already gone

Verse 1:

Sometimes some lines set off signs in your mind regroup, have a seat, recline, read the rhyme pre-nup see where you signed on the dotted line know what? he go, he shrunk, his biz the cheese to please money hungry companies now ease on down the road you sold your soul for some bullshit hole and some assets you don't even control Cool Breeze told you you was bought, you was sold huh, bet that nigga P.E.A.C.E. had his hand in that put all the money in a gunny sack twenties, fifties, hundreds and crispy stacks and I bet that Jed Clampett want his money back huh, give me too much time to control the stocks now I flipped and they flopped I ain't even got a set of shots we copped saying watch for the one time 'cause they hot and keep that monkey ass away from the spot
so they won't seize my crop

Verse 2:

lady, I hope you got life insurance on your spouse he's about to get shook up, fucked up until he falls down now you can be quiet, or we can tie you up back eat(?) and sit you outside it's four thirty now, we'll be gone before five grab that hard disk, slide it in the hard drive, load Gemini

access granted, all through the world wide web, I want my virus planted better leave off it, programs broke down and damaged triggering panic and we can slide in, that's computer mechanics cut the phone line in the back, our traps been set untie baby in the back tell her sorry for the terror, the stress left the ten gs on the TV set then we shook the spot in camouflage vests (scream)

Verse 3:

I'm the lyric dispenser, music minister dances, send us a physical center, a schizophrenic and nasty black child that taught that nasty black bastard
I prefer RC over Coke and Pepsi come near the tweaker feel me clearly speaker still being ??? on the way by a heat seeker five fools was inspecting the scene when one turned and his fancy focals focused on me I struggled ???? free and landed on his chest crushed him to death three ran, one stands with glock in hand talking 'bout capture and his plan, movin' him up in his clan I looked at him and I'm like man, the name of the game is watch ya don't make me back up and slap ya and you really don't think I'll attack ya uh, huh, but like I told ya' before...

you're out of time
I'm already gone

I'm already gone

already so when you think you got me you got nothin'
and sometimes when you think you got nothin' you got something but it ain't me
'cause I'm already gone
