still i wonder how you are and what became of all of this did you cry when winters end? stole you from that fertile land did your mother hold you dear? to ease the burden of your pain swallow out into the light

still i wonder how you are
and how you ever came to be i was nothing but a mole you nessed in and fell asleep were you sad when you awoke torn away from fertil dreams i didnt want to wake you up im still sorry

do you wonder how i am?
whatever became of me do you envision my fair face where the beatin go to drink i didnt want to cut that cord you suck the life right out of me do you regret choices youve made i guess i was a mistake
i guess im your big mistake well happy birthday anyways
