Can you hear me? whisper in your ear can you feel me? moving my hands up to your face where i can touch your cheeks so sweet and dream about the future, as i close in on your lips the sweetness of the kiss it's enough to bring me back to save the day why dont we say good-bye to the past 3 years
of my life
angel in disguise

can you hear me? as we talk about tea can you feel me? as i bring you closer to me so you can feel my heart beat in your chest We dream about the future as i close in on your lips the sweetenss of this kiss it's enough to brings us back to save the day why dont we say good-bye to the past 3 years
of my life
angel in disguise

and if i ever felt i'd do this all over (you bet your heart shape around me) touching your lips to mine. it's enough to bring me back
why dont we say good-bye to the past 3 years
of my life
angel in disguise
why dont we say good-bye (good-bye) to the past 3
years
why dont we say good-bye (good-bye) to the past 3
angel in disguise
