You never did what your momma said
You never will because now you're dead
So light a candle and say your prayers
Don't say a word because no-one cares

You never said what your daddy did
Crawl to your room and there you hid
So cross your heart and hope to die
Just because was the reason why

Stink! Stank! Stunk!
That's what you are when you're really rotten
Stink! Stank! Stunk!
Decomposed but not forgotten

You'll never be what you wanted to be Discontinued, absolutely
Now you say you want to try it again
Forever more is how long it's been
