"Our Ending"

I see you just as the same but my eyes are full of pain.
I am moving, I am moving Please don't block out my words - you know I need to be heard,
I need this. I want this.
I know that you'll be just fine; you once gave me a black eye
You remember, I remember.
Can you please tell me why your eyes are still on fire?
I'm not dying, stop crying.
And now it's time for me, I need to get out and see the world, this world.
Baby, get off my feet - this is where we meet our ending.
I am going tonight.
