Staring at a scarlet sky holding back the tears
And don't smear your mascara, honey. We've got tasting tonight.
We could be so good; Me and everything you are. Join me.
I'll be here 'till the end and I'll never be satisfied.
Do it, come on. Do it. I wanna see it done.
How far can you get down on the ground before it hurts?
Because that's not what this is about.
How far can you get down on the ground before it
hurts?
I wanna test your powers. I need to see how long you can go.
I'm looking for an answer to what it is that will make you glow.
Don't care how long it takes us; we could do this all night long.
I wanna sail the ocean with what you got on board.
Open your eyes to what you have.
Every second you spend with me would be like your last.

You belong to me you just can't see it yet. But don't worry I'll show
you now; I dare you to come my way.
So look this way, right at me. Dance with me, my Strawberry.
I'll be here till the end and I'll never be satisfied.
