"What Waits in the Water"

Become who you were meant to be;
What you were made for.
Take a shot at what you've wanted the most.
Don't hold back when you feel it, you're so close.
Time will send you through all the obstacles that make you who and what you were meant to be,
Even when it gets too hard, control your fears;
Don't hold your tears.
Breaking into reality, I still want everything.
No one's gonna get in my way -
I'll face it. I'll take it back. I've taken it back.
Have you seen it?
Have you seen the color?
Have you seen it?
Have you even seen the colour that we bleed?
Oh, I'm not so different from you.
Take my hand now and feel that it's real.
It's real. I'm real. We are all real.
