Just because I was the one born with boxing gloves and I'll collide on your side And look what we found under bridges, under ground sensation is feeling its way around

Save your own skin,
A fish who lost his fins,
A fight that he never wins

Fell out of love, was betrayed from above your pride was not safe like you thought that it was So well-behaved, if this would soon change somehow sensation is learning your name

Save your own skin,
A fish who lost his fins,

Save your own skin!,
A fish who lost his fins!,
A fight that he never wins!

Save your own skin!,
A fish who lost his fins!,
A fight that he never wins
