Dear, it's a lot like the way that we don't talk
Every day that I'm away I will be there
In the parking lot with the drugs we bought
And the hope I had, I haven't got a prayer
I haven't got a prayer

And you're small and feeling used,
Just stare and stay confused
Don't say what we've become

And, dear, I promise you
A change is overdue
By the time that I arrive
I will be done

Whatever I do, whatever I say to make you feel better
And every hour of every day, oh, it's all I ever

Dear, it's about
The things you see when you figure out
What the hell is going on

Bury me beneath
The overpass and the empty streets
It's better when I'm gone

And in the dark you say my name
I called you and you came
And it's more than I can bear

You're lost and left alone
And hope is never home
What's wrong is everywhere

Whatever I do, whatever I say to make you feel better
And every hour of every day, oh, it's all I ever
Hand me your hope, just stay together
They're all down watching you drown, it's now or never

Ask me, I'm sure I'll tell you how
We sing together now

Believe me

Ask her, I'm sure she'll tell you how
Just sing it like before
Believe me
Believe me
