now i see it
these hearts
spun in red
frigid and hard
and i got out and talked to them who am i
the heart is fiberglass
and i got out
I lost out grouping loves together

how i see it
these darts
shot through me
grasping every edge
and i got out to shout at them

I fell down to something new come on people

does your heart beat faster when you think of us
come on killers
does your heart beat faster when you think of us

have the hunger
i found its opening

have you ever heard of
the ones
who gathered you
the ones
who gathered you
