Where, oh, where is the girl that I found?
She was the best, the sweetest thing in this broken-down town
Where can this girl be now?
She used to make me feel like God when she'd go it on down

But now she got no time to play with me
Got no time to shake it with me
Got no time to make it with me
Got me feeling I'm nobody
But I know what you want me to do
You know what you want me to do
Compromise the struggle with you
Compromise, but

I ain't got time for this
When there ain't no time, no time, no time for this
Where is the girl that I found?
She used to help me dig up dirt in my graveyard town

Making love was the only sound
That I remember you could hear for miles around

But now she got no time to play with me
Got no time to shake it with me
Got no time to make it with me
Got me feeling I'm nobody
But I know what you want me to do
You know what you want me to do
Compromise the struggle with you
Compromise, but

I ain't got time for this
When there ain't no time, no time, no time for this

Where is the girl that I found?
She really helped me build this house from the dirt on the ground

But now she got no time to play with me
Got no time to shake it with me

Got no time to make it with me
Got me feeling I'm nobody
But I know what you want me to do
You know what you want me to do
Compromise the struggle with you
Compromise, but

I ain't got time for this
And there ain't no time, no time, no time for this

Where has my baby disappeared to?
Where has my baby gone now?
Where has my baby disappeared to?
Where has my baby gone now?
