He Rocks his IROC Z
He rocks it well
He rocks his Oakleys and his Oakley loaf from hell He's spinning donuts out in front of Taco Bell The girls are wanting him so bad and he can tell

I shred for Hella days
You know I can 4 finger tapping yeah Van Halen is the man he's making fun because I play in marching band he's getting action while I get my farmer tan

(Chorus)
hey
there's ego in my way lucky for me I have the patience of a saint ready, steady
these days are high and heady there's so much more left to say but there's ego in my way

He plays the ladies man
He plays it cool
I play my guitar and I play it by the rules
You think you rock so hard I challenge you to duel After school after school after school Let me hear you say

(Chorus)
hey
there's ego in my way
lucky for me I have the patience of a saint
ready, steady
but there's ego in my way
there's ego in my way
there's ego in my way
