oh I swear of all the ways I looked at you
the ones that mattered
were the ones you missed the ones that you turned away from so you wish that you could make the life you love the one you live

but you think so much on what you want while you want the dream I just want the sleep

hang from the lights
to find somebody
to return your kiss
cos it ain't me
it's the last time I'll take you out tonight
just to lead you on
just to walk you home

think I'm a fool to sit and watch you leave with no kiss to keep you from the door but you got all you wanted while I got bored
